

BIO Charles Holt

Charles Holt has over 30 years of experience with government contract accounting and over 16 years of experience handling DCAA reviews and audits for government contractors.

Mr. Holt has worked for K Duncan and Company as a Senior Accounting Consultant. K Duncan and Company is a consulting firm that specialized in providing services to government contractors in areas such as: accounting system development and maintenance; training of accounting personnel; indirect rate development, Incurred Cost Submissions; cost proposals, FAR compliance, GSA Schedule issues; and DCAA interface services.

Mr. Holt specializes in the preparation of government cost proposals and indirect rate budgets. He has assisted multiple clients with the set-up and implementation of new Deltek accounting systems and has training client personnel in the proper maintenance of general ledger and contract databases. He routinely works with other accounting softwares such as Procas, Peachtree, JAMIS, and QuickBooks.

Mr. Holt was an instructor for the "Financial Management" workshops under SBA 7(j) contract. The workshops instructed small government contractors on subjects such as understanding financial statements, accounting system setup, indirect cost pools and rates, and preparation of government cost proposals.

Ms. Holt has a Bachelors of Science degree in Accounting and Financial Management from North Carolina Central University.
